

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah, inaugurates Brahmaputra Wing at Raj Bhavan in Guwahati, Assam, and performs inauguration and foundation laying of eight projects worth ₹322 crore through virtual mode

Under the leadership of Modi Ji, the Northeast has seen unprecedented development in the last 11 years, whenever the history of the Northeast will be written, these 11 years of the Modi government will be written in golden letters

Through NCFL, policemen from all eight states of the Northeast will work 24 hours a day to protect the borders, prevent narcotics and illegal smuggling and secure the earnings of citizens

On one hand the entire world respects Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, on the other hand the Leader of the Opposition has started a negative politics of hatred and contempt

Opposition leaders have done the most disgusting thing by using abusive language for Prime Minister Modi's late mother, from the stage of a programme in Bihar

The kind of irrational protest, negativity and hate politics started by the Leader of the Opposition will drag our public life into decline

The main opposition party cannot win people's appreciation by using this type of language

The opposition has used abusive language against the Prime Minister in every election and has faced humiliation, but still has not learnt anything

Elections are the soul of democracy in a democratic nation and if infiltrators enter the voter list and pollute the elections, then no nation can remain safe

The people of the entire country are watching with shock and dismay the nefarious efforts started by the main opposition party, these efforts will not get them public support

The Leader of the Opposition should apologize to the Prime Minister, his late mother and the people of the country

Posted On: 29 AUG 2025 4:34PM by PIB Delhi

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah, today inaugurated the Brahmaputra Wing at Raj Bhavan in Guwahati, Assam, and performed the inauguration and foundation laying of eight projects worth ₹322 crore through virtual mode. On this occasion, Assam Governor Shri Lakshman Prasad Acharya, Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma, and Union Minister Shri Sarbananda Sonowal, along with several other dignitaries, were present.

In his address, Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah said that despite enduring various ups and downs and violent conflicts, the Northeast is now progressing towards peace, development, and comprehensive growth. He remarked that from Maharaja Prithu to Lachit Borphukan, and from Chilarai to the sacrifices made by the youth of Assam who joined the armed forces for Mother India, the Northeast has always been a vital pillar of India's security. Shri Shah further said that the Northeast is home to one of the world's oldest and most diverse cultures. The art, languages, cuisine, attire, music, and natural beauty of this region make the entire Northeast uniquely remarkable on the global stage.

Shri Amit Shah said that during the struggle of the Assam Bachao Andolan, many youths made sacrifices, and the vision with which students led the movement at that time has been realized today by the duo of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi and Chief Minister Shri Himanta Biswa Sarma. He said that the Assam envisioned during the Assam Movement has not only been achieved but surpassed, and this pace of development will continue unabated.

Union Home Minister said that under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, the Northeast has witnessed unprecedented development over the past 11 years. Whenever the history of the Northeast is written, these 11 years of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's governance will be inscribed in golden letters. He said that in the last 11 years, Prime Minister Modi has brought about transformative changes in every sector of the country. Be it external and internal security, infrastructure development, power generation, lifting 25 crore people above the poverty line, or providing 60 crore people with homes, electricity, toilets, piped water, gas cylinders, and healthcare coverage up to ₹5 lakh in the last 10 years, Prime Minister Modi has not only formulated policies but also ensured their implementation on the ground. He added that as a result, progress has been made in every sector across the country, and the world is watching this with astonishment.

Shri Amit Shah said that under today's program, eight projects worth over ₹322 crore have been inaugurated and their foundation stones laid. He said that the Modi government has repealed the three old criminal laws established by the British and introduced three new Indian laws for the criminal justice system. These new laws place significant emphasis on police investigations based on Forensic Science Laboratories (FSL) and efforts to ensure punishment for offenders. He added that under Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's leadership, the entire country is realizing the dream of a Digital India. Shri Shah emphasized that cyber security is extremely important for citizens, and therefore, the Government of India established the first National Cyber Forensic Laboratory (NCFL) in Delhi under the I4C initiative in 2019, which helps protect citizens' hard-earned money from cybercriminals. He said that after Delhi, the second NCFL has been established in Guwahati, Assam, which will safeguard the earnings of citizens across all eight Northeastern states. Furthermore, the NCFL will also prove instrumental in strengthening national security by countering those who use the dark net for narcotics, arms smuggling, and attempts to infiltrate by exploiting gaps in India's borders.

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Minister said that through the NCFL established at the Lachit Borphukan Police Academy, policemen from all the eight states of the Northeast will work 24 hours a day to protect the country's borders, help in the fight against narcotics and illegal smuggling and secure the earnings of citizens. He said that today many facilities have also been inaugurated for the soldiers of the Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs) who protect our borders.

The Home Minister said that the Brahmaputra wing of the Raj Niwas, built at a cost of more than Rs 40 crore and in an area of more than 3300 square meters, will have facilities to run many constitutional activities smoothly. He said that this facility will act as a place for acknowledging students, artists, and researchers from various disciplines. Further, through a meaningful dialogue, the Governor will also make the Assam Government aware of public sentiments.

Shri Amit Shah said that today the respect of our Prime Minister along with India has increased in the whole world and 27 countries have honoured Prime Minister Modi with their highest civilian award which is a matter of pride for India. He said that on one hand the whole world respects Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi. On the other hand, the leader of the main opposition party has started a negative politics of hatred and contempt. Shri Shah said that the main opposition leaders have done the most despicable thing by using abusive words for Prime Minister Modi's late mother from the stage of a programme in Bihar. The Home Minister strongly condemned this and said that the kind of irrational protest, negativity and hate politics by the leader of the main opposition party will drag our public life into decline.

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation said that since Shri Narendra Modi became the Chief Minister of Gujarat, many leaders of the main opposition party have used abusive language for the Prime Minister. He said that the main opposition party cannot win people's appreciation by using such language. Shri Shah said that the opposition has used abusive language against the Prime Minister in every election and has faced defeat but still has not learnt anything. He said that elections are the soul of democracy in any democratic nation and if infiltrators enter the voter list and pollute the elections, then no nation can remain safe. He said that the people of the entire country are watching with shock and dismay the nefarious efforts started by the main opposition party and their efforts will not get public support.

Shri Amit Shah said that what happened two days ago has crossed all limits. He said that Modi Ji's mother, while living in a poor household, has brought up all her children to such a level that her son has become a world leader. Shri Shah said that the people of India can never tolerate such abusive words against such a person, and there cannot be further degradation in politics and public life. Shri Shah told the leader of the main opposition party that he should apologize to the Prime Minister, his late mother and the people of the country for this.

(Release ID: 2161865) Visitor Counter : 591

Read this release in: Urdu , Marathi , Hindi , Manipuri , Assamese , Bengali , Punjabi , Gujarati , Odia , Kannad
a