

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah, along with President Smt. Droupadi Murmu, interacts with the Manjhi-Chalaki, the leading representatives of Bastar's social traditions, and winners of Bastar Pandum

Bastar residents arrived at Rashtrapati Bhavan for the first time in their traditional attire

Bastar, which was once losing its rich heritage, culture and traditions due to Naxalite violence, is Naxal-free and preserving its heritage

Advancing on the path of development, Bastar will in the coming years become Chhattisgarh's most developed division

प्रविष्टि तिथि: 30 JUL 2026 6:56PM by PIB Delhi

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah, along with President Smt. Droupadi Murmu, interacts with the Manjhi-Chalaki, the leading representatives of Bastar's social traditions, and winners of Bastar Pandum today.

In a post on X, Union Home Minister Shri Amit Shah said, "Today, at Rashtrapati Bhavan, I, along with Hon'ble President Smt. Droupadi Murmu Ji, interacted with the Manjhi-Chalaki, the leading representatives of Bastar's social traditions, and the winners of Bastar Pandum. The Bastar residents, who arrived at Rashtrapati Bhavan for the first time in their traditional attire, stand as proof that Bastar, which was once losing its rich heritage, culture and traditions due to Naxalite violence, is today Naxal-free and preserving its heritage. Advancing on the path of development, Bastar will in the coming years become Chhattisgarh's most developed division, establishing new benchmarks of progress."

आज राष्ट्रपति भवन में माननीय राष्ट्रपति श्रीमती द्रौपदी मुर्मु जी के साथ बस्तर की सामाजिक परंपराओं के प्रमुख मांझी-चालकी और बस्तर पंडुम के विजेताओं के साथ संवाद किया।

राष्ट्रपति भवन में पहली बार बस्तर की पारंपरिक वेशभूषा में पहुँचे बस्तरवासी इस बात के प्रमाण हैं कि जो बस्तर कभी... pic.twitter.com/Hwmlv76hPb

— Amit Shah (@AmitShah) July 30, 2026

RK/PR/PS

(रिलीज़ आईडी: 2291986) आगंतुक पटल : 389

इस विज्ञप्ति को इन भाषाओं में पढ़ें: Urdu , हिन्दी , Assamese , Punjabi , Gujarati , Odia , Kannada , Malayalam